

“A Teacher is a candle which burns and gives light to others”

Saint pauls convent school has a team of highly qualified dedicated and deeply devoted pedagogues at all the levels. Who are sincerely working under the able guidance of honorable principal, as a nation builder we have a number of trained teachers to take homely care of your wards. A primary and high school teachers are expert and trained in different stream. The classes are conducted by the expert of different subjects. At senior secondary level we have a long chain of lectures who not just only impart education through modern technologies but work on the all round development of the student so that they may become a successful future citizen of the country. Smart classes are also conducted by the expert on regular basics.